

NOUWEN LEGACY

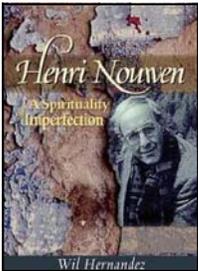

CELEBRATING HENRI NOUWEN'S SPIRITUAL IMPACT

"By sharing such thoughtful selections from the fruits of his research, Wil unwittingly becomes our mentor. His explanations and his analyses convey a spirit of soul care and nurture, as well as the characteristics of spiritual companionship. Like Henri, Wil Hernandez is an impassioned spiritual companion and guide."

~ Sr. Sue Mosteller, CSJ

Sacred Accompaniment in the Journey with Wil Hernandez, Ph.D.

7:00pm Friday, June 5th
to 1:30pm Sunday, June 7

Check-in starting at 3 pm.

A light dinner will be served at 6 pm.

The presentation will start at 7pm.

This retreat/seminar tackles the integrated psychological, ministerial and theological dynamics of soul work as Henri Nouwen embodied them. We will discuss the process by which the soul is spiritually shaped, nurtured and "companied" through life's journey employing Nouwen's multifaceted and elastic approach to soul care and spiritual formation. In so doing, we hope to imbibe in us a ministry of integration that we all can apply in our various contexts.

Wil Hernandez, Ph.D. regularly teaches a course on the spirituality of Henri Nouwen at Fuller Theological Seminary and at the Center for Religion and Spirituality at Loyola Marymount University.
