CELEBRATING HENRI NOUWEN'S SPIRITUAL IMPACT

Henri Nouwen: Befriending Tension

Weekend Retreat

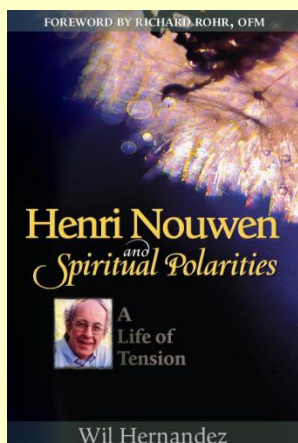

November 4-6 (Fri.-6:30 pm to Sun. - 12:00 pm)

St. Andrew's Abbey (Valyermo, CA)

November 4-6, 2011

FOCAL THEMES:

The Tension Between The True Self &
The False Self

Dear Friends,

Henri Nouwen exemplified for us how to navigate our way through our tension-filled journey by creatively embracing spiritual polarities in our life. This particular retreat centers around the ongoing tension between our true self and our false self along with the prospect of deeper transformation we are bound to experience in our journey as we learn how to befriend the reality of such tension.

Our weekend will consist of personal time of solitude, small group interactions, plenary teaching (based upon the focal theme), community sharing, and prayer liturgies.

Join us for this special weekend experience. Feel free to invite your friends. Be sure to register early (see Registration Information below).

Companioning you on the journey,

WIL (The Nouwen Legacy)
